AMBER ALERT IN WASHINGTON ENDS SUCCESSFULLY

Because of alert citizens and a vigilant public, Washington's AMBER Alert called this afternoon ended successfully and peacefully at the Bow Hill rest area in Skagit County, Washington.

"We are pleased to report that suspect Edgar Alberto Monge has been taken into custody and the little girl, Sigrid Castro, is safe and fine," said Captain Fred Fakkema of the Washington State Patrol.

Trooper Brent Hanger received a citizen call alerting him to the 1995 Chevrolet Silverado at the rest stop. Trooper Hanger made the arrest without incident.

For more information, contact Lieutenant Jeff Sass at (425) 308-5778.
